

A Royal Visitor

"The tumult and the shouting dies,

The Captains and the Kings depart."

So says the poem by Kipling. Not a King, but a Royal Princess has just left us, left us proud to have taken part in such a simple, but at the same time, very dignified, ceremony. This year, 1951, has been a very full one for our Regiment, and this, the visit of our Colonel-in-Chief, RHR Princess Elizabeth, serves as a fitting climax. It will be some thing for us to look back on in the future, and be able to say "I was there!"

-- Reminder

This coming Sunday, Nov 11, is a day of solemnity observed throughout the greatest part of the world today. You have already been told of the importance attached to the Regt'l parade on Remembrance Day. Enough said. Let's see 100% attendance by B Coy this Sunday.

News of the 27th Brigade

We've had many visitors from Valenciennes in the past month. So you've all had some news of some kind of the 48th Coy of the Highland In. Capt Lines has promised to keep in touch with us, so we shall be looking for some news once the Brigade is settled in their area in Germany. As you know, the first group left Coblenz last Monday. We would like to take this opportunity to wish "Bon Voyage" and best of luck to all our comrades from B Coy.

Advance Notices

Firstly, the parade to the Monument on Sunday, Nov 11. Let's all be there. The Coy party at Long Branch will be held Saturday, Nov 17th. I know we will have a good turnout to this affair. But don't leave all the work of preparation to one or two fellows. If you volunteer to go out to the hut on Saturday afternoon, be there! Don't let your committee down and we'll make this a party to be remembered for a long, long while!

Notes from Billy Grundon's Note-Book

On the Camp Borden Scheme;

--If anyone wants to see how the "monkey run, or crawl" is done, speak to Pte Knisley. He's a proven expert as shown last weekend at Borden. Claims he will demonstrate anytime, anyplace at the drop of a Glengarry!

--L/Cpl Grundon says that the "leopard crawl" is nothing new to him. That's the way he's got home from every social "do" Baker Coy have held to date. We think that he must have been knocking them back one for one with that O'Keefe shareholder in the Coy.

--Howcum Sgt Parmiter and L/Cpl Garven can afford these cigars or cheroots or whatever they call these mobile smoke-screens? Also why do they always smoke them when B Coy is seated in a closed bus? Cough! Cough!

--After this week-end "do" at Borden, don't anyone mention either SNAKES or BROOMS to our Norm Quinn!

--L/Cpl Garven had a real good time on Sunday looking after that long, thin "Dark Horse" who was attached to his section. You know the one--"Change step " I can't!"

-- Better change those coveralls, Pte Roger Reid. They're worthless as far as camouflage, why you show up more than Knisley on a Saturday Night!

--CSM Montgomery has once again shown his versatility. Not content with being a big name in baseball, he now turns up as a virtuoso on the harmonica, rending the air with such old classics as the "Wreck of the Old 97".

-- Speaking of harmonicas, where did Pte Harbinson learn that one, so-called tune he was bashing into our ears practically all the way home?

-- Anybody here seen a spare Bren Group?

-- Strictly on the side, don't anyone mention poison ivy to Mr Heighington!

Once again, the same old plea!! Contributions-- come on, lets go, the rest of you in the Coy. Don't let L/Cpl Grundon do all the supporting of this, your Coy paper. Let's EVERYONE get in there!!!
